Again nice Sporadic E Openings on 144 MHz...
If you interested in reading more info or if youself made some ES contacts on 144 MHz and wants to share it with the active community, please be welcome at: http://www.mmmonvhf.de/es.php Frank, PA4EME and Udo, DK5YA will try to setup the latest overviews from YOUR input and from DXCluster infos as soon as possible day by day! You will be able to find up to date infos, as well summaries and details back to the year 2004 and as well you be able to upload your own sporadic E log! We start the service in may and so please excuse if something might be slower and need more patience in the begin. If you have any further ideas around these section, you are very welcome! Of course as well from US (and later from ZL/VK) ES reports are welcome!!!
